

Types of Point of View

Directions: Read the following passages. Then decide which type of point of view is used in each one. In the blank, write a for first person, b for second person, or c for third person.

- _____ 1. When Cass started learning to play baseball, she never thought she could ever be good at the sport. The ball seemed so small. The plates seemed so far away. At the beginning, her confidence level was low.
- _____ 2. You ran into the shed keeping one eye on the skies above. The clouds were moving swiftly. The rain would come any minute, of this you were sure. Suddenly you realized that you had left the windows in the main house open. You ran back outside, just as it began to pour.
- _____ 3. “Cheer up!” I told him. Howard was feeling poorly about what had happened in the park. I knew that it wasn’t my fault, but I still felt like I had to do something about the situation.
- _____ 4. The first girl climbed swiftly up the ladder, took a deep breath, and then jumped off the board into the icy green water below. She wasn’t nervous at all. The second diver, however, was frightened. He looked warily down at the distant pool.
- _____ 5. “I won’t do it,” said the chef. “You can’t put cheese in a fish dish.” He scowled at the manager, took off his apron, and stalked out of the restaurant.
